

Program Educational Objectives

- PEO-1 : Laying strong foundation of the fundamental concepts of Computer and Information Technology, enabling the students to be acquainted with both hardware and software knowledge.
- PEO-2 : To educate the students to understand, design and implement various functionalities of a system through optimal use of resources and efficient design procedures.
- PEO-3 : Prepare students for real-world problems by working on in-house, academic, research and Industry-oriented projects.
- PEO-4 : To develop expertise of documentation, requirement analysis, design, Implementation and software testing skills to suit the corporate needs.
- PEO-5 : To imbibe an ability to be an effective member of a multi-disciplinary software Intensive product development team.
- PEO-6 : To develop an ability to communicate to varied audiences through individual, Professional and attitudinal approaches for societal needs in the global context.