

Program Specific Outcomes (PSO)

- 1. The students should be able to analyze and design electrical engineering problems in the area of power systems, electrical machines, electronics and interdisciplinary courses.
- 2. The students should be able to take-up higher studies and research in the area of power and energy
- 3. The students should be able to apply ethics and professional values in addressing societal issues
- 4. The students should be able to become entrepreneur and to solve community problem related to electrical energy